

X-change®

Interchangeable pistons and valves

Our volumetric pumps have fully interchangeable male components. This feature exists not only for male parts produced within the same batch of pumps, but also between batches having the same clearance. This prevents the risk of incorrect assembly and enables the replacement of damaged male parts quickly and cheaply.

